PODUNK THROWBACKS

"Throwback" to a time when songwriters did not "woo" listeners with familiar covers while slipping their own works in between but believed in their songs enough to allow them to stand on their own.... that's The Podunk Throwbacks. Songwriter, Todd Skilton, combines life experience with jazz, rock, country, folk & classical influences, providing a little something for everyone to relate to. Together, the Podunk Throwbacks take these musical perceptions of life and "throw them back" with a unique sound, no "gimmicks" or formulation & an energy that keeps the audience engaged.
